Hillis' Financial Manager Not Afraid of Lawsuit

New York, Sept. 24.—Frank Ferguson, former financial manager for Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, today made public correspondence, in which the Plymouth church pastor had hinted at action against him for misuse of funds. Ferguson challenged Hillis to go ahead, implying that he really needed to continue with a clear headed manager. He also replied that Hillis had blundered in his dealings, and that all possible had been saved by Ferguson from the wreckage. In this letter, Ferguson pointed out that he had not claimed $11,000 still due him from Hillis.

"All rot," was the reply of Attorney Charles Lark after a consultation with his client, Hillis. "It is not true that Hillis was a million dollar plunger."

The pastor confessed from his pulpit last Sunday that his ambitions had led him away from his ideals.

Hild's Announcement Causes Railroad Row

Denver, Colo., Sept. 24.—F. W. Hild's announcement at Portland, Oregon, that he would become general manager of the Denver Tramway system, appeared likely this afternoon to precipitate a big row in that organization.

Classe Boettcher, chairman of the board of directors, admitted that this "premature publicity is embarrassing." Despite his denial yesterday that Hild is to have the place, it was learned today that Vice President John A. Beeler, who is also general manager, is to be discharged and Hild elected to his place Monday unless secret plans of a majority of the board are abandoned at the last moment.

Clark, Dodge and company of Philadelphia bankers for the tramway as well as the Portland lines are backing Hild. It was rumored that Beeler, on the other hand is organizing interests friendly to him for a fight which will possibly be carried into the courts.

Beeler's objection to "near side" stops in the face of directors approval and popular approval thereof was hinted at as one reason for Beeler's removal. However, his friends suggested there will be sensational charges of looting, if he is ousted.

Six Women Indignant Over Beauty Advertising

San Francisco, Sept. 24.—Six women at a local hotel are very indignant. They have been press agenting all over the country as "six beauty contest winners" from Ohio. They are from Ohio all right but they are not beauties. What is more they deny being pretty and confess to ages running all the way from 40 to 75. Their whole visit to the fair has been all but spoiled by misinformed cities and societies trying to dine and wine them as belles when they deny being belles at all.

"The whole thing started when Ohio wished six beauty contest winners on our party," said Miss Cecelia Wagner, aged 50, today. The press agent got busy. But the beauties couldn't get any one to take them. Another missed her train. Still another got married.

Fire Thought Incendiary

A large barn belonging to G. G. White, who lives east of Woodburn, was burned to the ground Saturday night about 8 o'clock, together with about one hundred tons of straw. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin as there had been no fire in the vicinity of the building for months. To strengthen this belief, it was reported that a man was seen running from the camp sheds nearby by one of the men returning from the fire. The sheds and brush patch were surrounded but the man must have made his escape by running through the top yard.—Woodburn Independent.

Prominent Lawyer Is Charged With Bigamy

New Orleans, La., Sept. 24.—After servants at his estate had claimed he was in San Francisco, Charles E. George, a prominent lawyer, charged with bigamy, was located here today. He denied that he had been notified that he was wanted under charges made by Mrs. May Ritter George of Milwaukee.

"I have been married once," he said in answer to claims that he had wedded four times. "My wife was a sister of Alderman Altpeter of Milwaukee, and I never heard of the four women mentioned in Milwaukee dispatches. The Ritter woman is trying to blackmail me. 'I am ready to go to Milwaukee to face anything.' George's wife is here with him and said she would stand by him.

CARRY STOMACH JOY IN YOUR VEST POCKET

Daniel J. Fry Has Such Faith In This Dyspepsia Remedy That He Guarantees It.

One of the greatest successes in the sale of medicine has been achieved by Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy, and its sale is increasing so rapidly that Daniel J. Fry, the popular druggist, has hard work to keep a stock on hand. It is very popular with bankers, ministers, lawyers and others whose business or profession keeps them closely confined, while those who have brought on indigestion through irregular eating, worry, or other causes, have found relief in this reliable remedy.

Mi-o-na comes in tablet form and is sold in a metal box especially designed for convenience in carrying the medicine in the pocket or purse. It is pleasant to take, gives quick relief and should help every case, no matter of how long a standing. This remedy has been so uniformly successful that Daniel J. Fry will in future sell Mi-o-na under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it should not prove entirely satisfactory. No other dyspepsia medicine ever had a large enough percentage of cures so that it could be sold in this manner. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

There is no time like the present to do a thing that ought to be done. If any one has dyspepsia, today is the best time to begin curing it.
